

WALLACES OF WESTERN KENTUCKY – MISCELLANEOUS RECORDS

It is possible that E. and Mary Wallace were the parents of Isham E. Wallace (1778-1853), Nathan Wallace (1785-1852) and Eli Wallace (1790-1855)

While I do not have concrete proof of this family, there are several facts pointing in this direction. This connection is an assumption based on the following:

- Mary Wallace (45+) and Isham Wallace (16-26) are living next door to each other in the 1800 Montgomery County, NC Census.
- Mary has two sons listed in her household (10-16) & (16-26).
- Eli Wallace (1790-1855) listed his birthplace as Montgomery County, NC on his Graves County, KY Death Certificate.
- Eli Wallace listed his parents as E. Wallace and M. Wallace on his Death Certificate
- Eli Wallace was granted 30 acres in Montgomery County in 1826 adjoining his own 200 acre tract that was originally purchased by Mary Wallace from John Morris in 1794
- Nathan Wallace (1785-aft 1850) was also listed as having been born in NC and in 1850 was living next door to Isham's son Isham (b. 1804) in Graves County, KY.
- All three of these men migrate to western KY in the 1820s and 1830s and lived very closely to each other.
- This family also seems closely related to another group of Wallaces from Montgomery County. William Wallace (b. 1791-1800), Harbard/Harbart Wallace (b.1796), Elizabeth "Betsy" Wallace Hagler (b. 1800) and Ann Wallace Hall (b. 1803). A number of William's children migrated to western KY as did Harbard/Harbart and family. They lived in the same communities as the Wallaces above and their descendants intermarried. While we do not know the identity of their parents, multiple lines descending from these children have passed down orally that the four of them were indeed siblings.

1795, Jan 27 -- Deed, Montgomery County, NC Page 99

John Morris deeded Mary Wallace 200 acres located East of the Yadkin River adjoining the county line. Neddy Pennington and Farqd. Campell were witnesses.

1795, Nov 10 -- Land Warrant #590, Montgomery County, NC

John Crump Sr. entered 250 acres located on Garr Creek adjoining Adam Davis, Mary Wallis and William Loftin. Adam Davis and Michael Fisher were chain carriers.

WALLACES OF WESTERN KENTUCKY – MISCELLANEOUS RECORDS

House of William Wallace

William Wallace [1791/1800-1843] was married to Chaney Berry Cranford and lived most of his life near the Uwharrie River and Ophir in Montgomery County, NC. Many of their children migrated to western KY and can be found residing among and intermarrying with the descendants of the other Wallaces from the nearby area. While we do not know the identity of William's parents, it is my belief that William was not a sibling to the Isham, Nathan and Eli Wallaces of Graves and Calloway County, KY but more likely a first cousin. It has been passed down through William's descendants that his siblings were Harbard/Harbart Wallace [1796-1872], Ann Wallace Hall [1803-1900], and Elizabeth 'Betsy' Wallace Hagler [1800-1905].

William's children Erasmus Simpson Wallace (1824-1901), Alexander Clark Wallace (1827-1899), Martha Jane Riley (1831-1916), Nancy Caroline Wallace Riley (1833-1907), Louisa Eliza Wallace Reeves (1836-1915) and Jason McKendrick Wallace (1843-1907) all migrated to western KY and can often be found intermarrying with the many Wallace families above.
